LIVE FROM THE VATICAN.

While transcribing these workshops I discovered a very nice little documentary of the event made by an Italian cameraman, who interviewed many of the Knowledge Seekers, and Mr. and Mrs. Keshe themselves also.

What MK said was a brief and powerful summary of why he was there at the Vatican that day in June 2014 to record MK's punchline at the epicenter in time and space of that remarkable series of workshops over the Summer Solstice of 2014, about a quarter of the way through his road map that was laid out in January 2014.

Emanuele: Good morning Mr. Keshe, why we are here today?

MK: As I explained before we are here to make a small change.

E: Yeah! – I know you have a special letter for Pope Francis! What's in this letter?

MK: This letter, you've seen a copy of it, is inviting the world's religious leaders for Peace Conference. We invited the world leaders for peace conference, and the ambassadors, and now we do the same for the religious leaders. Last time it took about 8 months for them to respond. We'll see if the religious leaders are going to be any faster!

E: Hahaha! Lol – and what you say to the Italian people who is watching this video? A message for everybody!

MK: Thank you very much for your support, and thank you very much for hosting us in this country, and hopefully we should be able to achieve a lot with your help.

E: Thank you very much – and so as well we are meeting Mr. Keshe's wife – can we know your name?

Caroline: (smiling) Caroline.

E: Hi Caroline, nice to meet you – how is it to be Keshe's wife?

C: Pleasure.

E: And you are helping him so much!

C: I try to be whatever I can.

E: What's the next move for Mr. Keshe, or can you give us advice how to help what you are doing, you and him?

Caroline: Spread the word! Inform all the people who have no access, or are not aware of it – just inform – if I go on Facebook or anywhere I can I just try to pass the message on. Just inform people who are not aware of it.

Emanuele: Thank you.
